

Dear Praying Grandmothers,

As we approach this season of thankfulness and rejoicing, let us consider how we may keep Christ first place in our thoughts, words and activities.

Perhaps many of us have memorized Psalm 103:1:

“Bless the Lord, O my soul. And all that is within me, bless His holy name.”

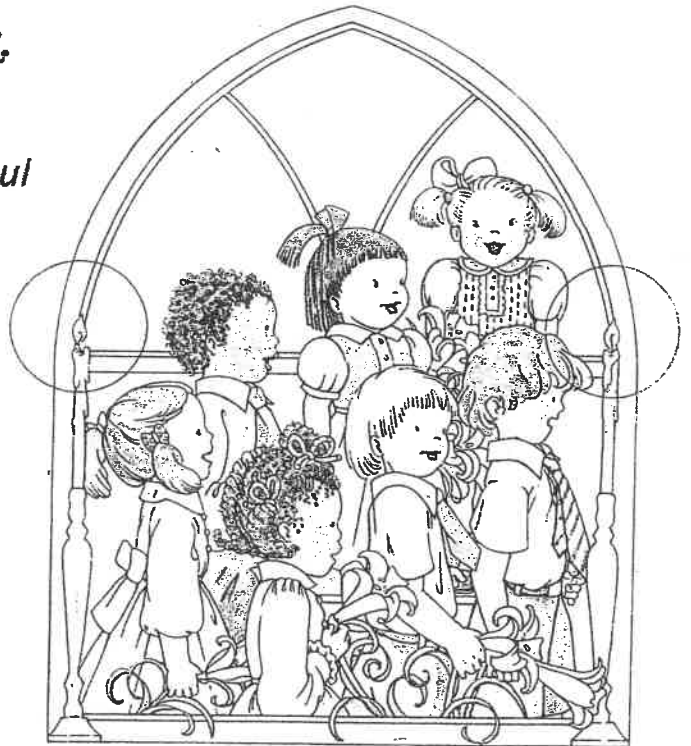

How often we pray for the Lord to bless our children and grandchildren, our churches, our cities and our nation and ourselves. That’s all precious and good.

Let’s now ask ourselves how often we “Bless the Lord”? The word “bless” can also include praise, glorify, honor and worship as well as a spirit of thanksgiving. The second page in this mailing has some Scriptural names of our Lord that can assist us in loving and blessing Him throughout these days.

What a mighty God we serve!

Let us remember to pray,
as we celebrate joyfully this year, the many who are dreading this season, who are in anguish of soul because someone they love is:

- terminally ill
- facing a new divorce
- in prison
- in drug rehab
- in serious addiction
- in chemotherapy
- died since last year
- living in adultery
- homosexual

And let us hold unwaveringly to the hope that we confess, for the one who made the promise is trustworthy. – Hebrews 10:23

Bless the Lord, O my soul; And all that is within me, bless His holy name.
